WET FIELD—Bad luck and heavy rain dogged the heels of Torrance High's Tartars last Friday night, and they dropped the opener to the Point Lomans, 7 to 0. Above Jim Murphy gallops down the sideline to touchdown territory, only to have the one Tartar score called back for a penalty.

There is no time like the present.

Parents, meanwhile, will match their dollar ducaats with numbered prizes on display in the windows of downtown merchants.

Soap Box Derby
Capping the day, will be the running of the annual Torrance Soap Box Derby, sponsored by the Kiwanis Club, Pennsylvania Ave., between 237th and 240th Sts., will be roped off for this event, with proper supervision by the Torrance Police Dept., it was reported. Winner of this free event will receive as top prize a Longine-Wittnauer wrist watch.

Members of the Kiwanis Club will be on duty during the day, wearing white overseas caps, with the Kiwanis emblem on the side. The Kiwanians will supervise activities both on Treasure Island and at the Soap Box Derby grounds.
Climaxing the day-long event, there will be a grand drawing for a television set and for all unclaimed prizes. Tickets purchased for the Treasure Hunt will be valid for the grand drawing. The drawing will be held on Treasure Island Saturday evening, it was stated.

Charity Event
All proceeds from the Treasure Hunt will be used by the sponsoring Kiwanis Club to finance the annual "Learn to Swim" program and other events for Torrance children.

Co-inciding with the Family Treasure Hunt, local merchants are staging a Treasure Hunt Bargain Sale, which, from all indications, will be the biggest such sale ever conducted here.

The generosity and cooperation of Torrance merchants and business and professional people came in for high praise this week, as Joe Doss, general chairman of the event, said, "The overwhelming response the Kiwanis has received from the merchants has shown again the spirit of generosity and civic good-will that this city is famous for."

eight years of newspaper work for his remarks, Ryan disclosed. Widely sought as a speaker before business, civic and service groups, and author of many articles on public relations, his remarks promise to be outstanding. A large attendance, swelled by guests and employees of members, is anticipated at the meeting, according to Ryan.

Ryan disclosed that Stewart is past president of the Public Relations Club of San Francisco-Oakland Bay Area and former editor of National Motorist magazine. Stewart has been associated with the National Automobile Club for the past 15 years.

Seaside Slates Get Acquainted Breakfast Meet

A get acquainted breakfast will be held by the Seaside Elementary School Parent-Teacher Association for the people of Torrance Gardens, Seaside Ranchos, and Seaside Heights.

The breakfast will be held on Wednesday, Oct. 1, from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. in the patio of Mr. and Mrs. William Steinwach, 5320 Sharynne Lane, Seaside Ranchos.

There will be transportation offered to anyone who will need it by phoning Frontier 5-1021. Everyone in the Seaside School area is invited whether they have children in the school or not, it was disclosed.

Local Boy is Awarded Medal

WITH THE 7TH INFANTRY DIV. IN KOREA—First Lt. Clifford H. Vaughan, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Vaughan of 616 E. Carson St., has been awarded the Bronze Star Medal for meritorious service in Korea.

The lieutenant, whose wife, Janice, lives at 115 Quincy Ave., Palm Beach, Calif., was cited for his work in the office of the 7th Infantry Division's chief of staff.

He now is a platoon leader in Company G of the division's 17th Regiment.

Lieutenant Vaughan's division is on the active central Korean front.

Paper Route Is Boy's First Business Career

Every Thursday morning more than 40 Torrance boys, your neighbors' sons, get up at 4 or 5 a.m., roll their bundles of 175 or 200 papers, and place them on the doorstep of every house on their route.

Each "Little Merchant" carrier is in business for himself, with a service worth paying for. When your carrier boy asks for a small amount each month for his services, remember you are paying him for his services.

If you don't receive your paper by Thursday noon, please call the Torrance Press, Torrance 1188.
